

Researcher/Curator for African American and Hispanic/Latinx History

Project Title	Researcher/Curator for African American and Hispanic/Latinx History
Project Summary	Identify and highlight records in our nation's history that help the National Archives tell the stories of African American and Hispanics/Latinx using the National Archives Catalog tagging tools. Also, highlight these records by writing blog posts, and editing web pages.
Country	United States
Agency	National Archives and Records Administration
DoS Office	N/A
Post	N/A
Section	N/A
Number of Interns	1

Project Description

Using the National Archives Catalog and other research tools available on archives.gov., help us identify records related to African Americans, Hispanics/Latinx, as well as records related to Latin American countries. Interns will identify these records by tagging them in the catalog using designated project tags. There will also be opportunities to research the history and context of the events/persons related to the record and to highlight them in blog posts, and to update web pages related to these topics.

Desired Skills Interests

Additional Information

Ideal candidates will have a background or strong interest in history or American studies, ideally specializing in areas related to African American studies, Hispanic studies, or Latin American history. Interns should know how to perform advanced and complex search functions on an online search engine. Critical thinking and written communication skills highly desirable.

Language Requirements

None